

Hey crew, welcome
back to FLOW
LIFE SKILLZ!
Most of us can't afford to be constantly updating
our closets, but we still wanna
keep it fresh!
Here's some tips
for looking sick
on a budget!

flow

One of the most obvious tips is to thrift shop. Duh! BUT: steer clear of "trendier" or "cuter" stores. They tend to mark up their prices, + you can find just as cool of stuff at Goodwill, etc.

Clothing swaps with friends are also an awesome way to get fun new clothes while clearing up stuff you don't wear!

TRADE-IN (HERE)

When it comes to getting rid of old clothes, you can also do trade-in at some thrift stores for store credit!

You can also look online for ideas on how to style pieces
you already have in a new & cool way!

Last but not least,
you can invest in
some smaller
new accessories
to make even
your oldest stuff
feel fresh + new!

Ballin' on a budget doesn't mean you can't look awesome!
