You can't control the way other people
feel about you.

Hard pill to swallow, I know.

If you let yourself think too hard about it, how any person you come into contact with could feel any way about you....

It makes you want to

D-I-S-A-P-P-E-A-R

Because what will you do if people don't like you?!

And you can't control

it?? What then?!

That's just it, though - the only thing in this world that you have any amount of control over...

... is yourself.

The way you
treat others.

The way you
treat yourself.

If you treat people with kindness and they still have an issue with you,

that's probably their problem, not yours.
